Program: Chair of the JoEllen Guld introduced her speaker Edwin Lamont. Ed presented a history of Santa. The first mention of Santa was in the 3rd or 4th century, Saint Nicholas, who was know for give things to people in need.
The Dark Ages did not help. In modern ages, each Country had their own name and history of Santa. Maybe the biggest bust for Santa was When Virginia O'Hanlon wrote a newspaper asking if their was a Santa. The paper respond by writing, "Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Clause." In the 1930's Santa was seen holding a bottle of Coke. Thanks Ed for a great presentations.
